SAW WAGON NEAR LOT WHERE GIRL'S BODY WAS BURNED

Autopsy Shows Victim Was Killed With Knife Before Body Was Drenched With Vitriol and Thrown Into Bonfire.

While the Brooklyn police are trying by means of a strangely preserved scapular to establish the identity of the twenty-year-old girl whose murdered body, tied in a mattress, soaked with oil and marked with vitriol, was shoved into a bonfire of rubbish in Williamsburg early to-day, an Evening World reporter has found facts which piece out an important gap in the mystery.

Between 3 o'clock and 3.30 o'clock this morning a covered wagon drawn by one horse, and travelling at top speed, left the rubbish pile in the Greenpoint section, where the mutilated trunk of the young woman was subsequently found. In the wagon two men sat.

Confirms Original Theory.
The establishment of this circumstance goes far toward confirming the original theory of the police that the dead girl was brought to the banks of Whale Creek in a wagon and consigned to the flames, after the murderers had drenched the body and its wrappings in oil and destroyed the face of their victim with acids. It also helps to clear away any suspicion against two men who had been put under arrest earlier in the day.

The autopsy, performed late this afternoon, shows without the shadow of a doubt that the victim was slain by a clean slash across the throat some time before noon yesterday or twenty-four hours before the discovery of the body. Coroner's Physician Wuest says that

TAFT PARTY SHOT AT ON STEAMER BY MAN WITH GUN

Woman Wounded as Candidate and Notification Committee Viewed Fireworks.

CINCINNATI, July 29.—The steamer Island Queen was fired on during its trip up the Ohio River last night with Judge William H. Taft and the Notification Committee and guests aboard.

Mrs. C. B. Russell, of this city, standing on the hurricane deck, directly under the seat occupied by the Presidential candidate was struck in the face and breast by a number of small shot. She was not seriously injured.

Few of those on the steamer knew of the occurrence and Judge Taft was not told. A shotgun was used, being fired by a man from a shantyboat moored to the Ohio side of the river. The identity of the man is not known. The Island Queen had steamed slowly around the bend at Dayton, Ky., and was near the middle of the river when persons leaning on the harbor rail saw a man emerge from the cabin of a shanty boat moored on the Ohio bank and fire a shotgun. He was in his shirt and wore a straw hat.

Mrs. Russell gave a scream and declared she had been shot. She was hurried into the cabin, where it was found she was not seriously injured. One of the shots had penetrated the skin over her left eye and another had struck her on the chin.

The distance from the shore was so great that the charge of shot had almost spent itself when it reached the steamer. A number of the pellets pierced her dress. A young man standing by Mrs. Russell's chair was also hit by one of the shot, but he was not hurt.

The officers of the boat stated that they would make an investigation in order to learn the identity of the man who fired the gun. C. B. Russell said:

"I was standing at my wife's side, but none of the shot struck me. It was fired from a shantyboat on the Ohio shore. I saw the man plainly and at first thought him merely an enthusiastic sportsman. But the shot was fired with malicious intent, and it may have been only just below where Judge Taft was sitting."

MILLER MAKES POOR SHOWING AT BRIGHTON

With Mount on Odds-on Favorites He Finishes Back in Ruck.

By VINCENT TR ANOR.
BRIGHTON BEACH RACE TRACK, July 29.—Walter Miller, the star jockey of last year, made himself very unpopular with the crowd at Brighton Beach to-day by being beaten on two hot favorites. Miller rode Star Thistle in the third and put up such a bad ride that even the memory breakers who profited by his defeat had to comment on the exhibition furnished by the erstwhile star. Tom Shaw was overheard remarking that "They wouldn't stand for that Miller ride even at Iron Hill."

In the next race the feature of the day's racing, Miller rode Big Chief, a 1 to 2 choice, in a field of four. He was lucky to be second at the end in front of Comedian, Arasee won the race in a gallop, after leading all the way. Miller lay third to the far turn, without even making a move. "What's Miller doing with the favorite?" "Hurrying up, Miller," and similar cries, could be heard throughout the grandstand.

Finally Makes Move.
Just before reaching the stretch turn Miller finally made a move on Big Chief, but he was too late then. Arasee was breezing along five lengths in front and out of all danger of being caught. Comedian held on gamely to second place, and Miller had to drive Big Chief hard to beat her out of the place money.

Easy for Tom McGrath.
The first race went to Tom McGrath, who led all the way, winning in a mild drive from Nimbus, who outgained Salvatore in
